By submitting the Application, Customer agrees to be bound by these Terms, as they may be amended, modified, or supplemented from time to time. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to create any obligation or liability for Ace Endico, and Customer expressly acknowledges Ace Endico may terminate any account, agreement, or credit privilege extended to or entered into with Customer for any reason or no reason, with no prior notice.

Customer acknowledges that Ace Endico will rely on all information provided as a material inducement to extend credit to Customer, and certifies that all information it has provided and/or will provide to Ace Endico is true, complete, accurate, and not misleading. Customer authorizes Ace Endico to perform any investigation Ace Endico deems appropriate in its sole discretion to evaluate Customer's credit worthiness and agrees to promptly notify Ace Endico in writing of any material changes to Customer's financial conditions, ownership, or contact information (including address). Customer may not assign any rights, obligations, or benefits it has with relation to Ace Endico without Ace Endico's prior written consent (any material change in ownership of Customer shall be deemed such an assignment). Customer acknowledges that Ace Endico may establish any credit limit for Customer and may increase, decrease, or terminate credit extended to Customer at any time, and in any amount, as Ace Endico may deem appropriate in its sole discretion, without prior notice.

Customer acknowledges that Ace Endico, in its sole discretion, may establish and/or modify payment terms for Customer without prior notice. Customer acknowledges that any such modification of payment terms shall not be deemed a modification of these Terms or any other terms binding upon Customer. Customer agrees that it will make payments pursuant to the terms established by Ace Endico on its invoices or otherwise. If Customer's credit relationship with Ace Endico is terminated, Customer shall purchase any special-order or proprietary items Ace Endico obtained or has held for Customer within three days.

If Customer does not pay or perform pursuant to any terms established by Ace Endico (a "Default"), all amounts owed, regardless of whether or not the same had become due as of date of Customer's Default, shall become immediately due and payable. Customer agrees that it shall pay to Ace Endico finance charges in the amount of 1.5% per month (or the highest non-usurious rate allowable in New York State, whichever is lower) on all amounts due, calculated from the date of Default. Customer agrees that Customer shall pay to Ace Endico all costs and attorneys' fees incurred by Ace Endico to collect sums due and owing from Customer to Ace Endico and/or to enforce these Terms or any other term(s) or agreement(s) between Ace Endico and Customer. Further, Customer agrees that it shall pay to Ace Endico a $50 fee for each returned check, ACH, or other attempted payment dishonored for any reason. In the event any attempted payment is dishonored, Ace Endico will resubmit it for payment without notice to Customer. Customer agrees that it shall pay to Ace Endico a $100 fee for any attempted payment that is dishonored again after resubmission for payment.

Customer acknowledges that Ace Endico shall not be responsible for any product nonconformity (price, quantity, quality, or otherwise), unless such non-conformity is noted on the original receipt for delivery at the time of delivery.

These Terms shall apply to all of Customer's transactions with Ace Endico and shall not be amended, modified, or supplemented except as agreed to in writing by Ace Endico. In the event the language of a purchase order or any other communication from Customer varies from these Terms, these Terms shall control.

If any portion, provision, or part of these Terms is held, determined, or adjudicated to be invalid, unenforceable, or void for any reason, each such portion, provision, or part shall be severed from the remainder hereof and shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any remaining portions, provisions, or parts.

Customer acknowledges that the issuance of credit or the sale of any goods or services to Customer by Ace Endico, shall be in Ace Endico's sole discretion (neither this submission, nor any assurance or signature by a Sales Agent for Ace Endico shall bind Ace Endico to issue credit) and shall be good and valuable consideration of the terms set forth herein, and that in the event Ace Endico issues such credit or so transacts with Customer, these Terms shall be binding on Customer and shall inure to the benefit of Ace Endico and its agents, successors, assigns, and subsidiaries.

Purchases of Tangible Personal Property and Services by Certain Hospitals, Nonprofit Nursing Homes, Nonprofit Rest Homes, or Nonprofit Residential Care Homes

General Purpose: A nonprofit hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, nonprofit residential care home, or an acute care hospital operating in Connecticut as a sole community hospital as described in 42 CFR 412.92, must issue CERT-113 to retailers when purchasing tangible personal property or taxable services to be used by the institution exclusively for the purposes for which it was established.

Hospital is defined in Conn. Gen. Stat. §19a-490(b) as an establishment for the lodging, care, and treatment of persons suffering from disease or other abnormal physical or mental conditions and includes inpatient psychiatric services in general hospitals. For the purposes of CERT-113, qualifying hospital includes any nonprofit hospital or acute care hospital operating in Connecticut as a sole community hospital as described in 42 CFR 412.92.

Under Conn. Gen. Stat. §12-412(5), a nonprofit hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, or nonprofit residential care home is:

- An institution that holds a valid and active license issued by the Department of Public Health under Conn. Gen. Stat. §19a-491 of Chapter 368v; and either
- An institution issued an exemption permit before July 1, 2002, by the Department of Revenue Services (DRS) that has not been cancelled or revoked by DRS; or
- An institution that is exempt from federal income tax under I.R.C. §501(a) and has been issued a determination letter by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as an organization described in I.R.C. §501(c)(3) or (4), and that has not been revoked by IRS.

Nursing home, rest home, and residential care home are defined in Conn. Gen. Stat. §19a-490(c) as an establishment that furnishes, in single or multiple facilities, food and shelter to two or more persons unrelated to the proprietor and in addition, provides services that meet a need beyond the basic provisions of food, shelter, and laundry.

A nonprofit hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, or nonprofit residential care home that is not, and is not required to be, registered as a retailer with DRS may use this certificate to purchase any tangible personal property for resale at one of the five fundraising or social events of a day's duration during any calendar year. The event must be exempt from tax under Conn. Gen. Stat. §12-412(94). Otherwise, these nonprofit institutions may not purchase tangible personal property for resale with this certificate.

This certificate may not be used for purchases of taxable services for resale. This certificate may not be used for the purchase of meals or lodging, unless a nonprofit hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, or nonprofit residential care home that is not, and is not required to be, registered as a retailer with DRS is purchasing meals for resale at one of the five fundraising or social events per year that is exempt from tax under Conn. Gen. Stat. §12-412(94). (See Special Notice 98(11), Exemption From Sales and Use Taxes of Sales by Nonprofit Organizations at Fundraising or Social Events or Informational Publication 2002(11), Nonprofit Hospitals, Nonprofit Nursing Homes, Nonprofit Rest Homes, and Nonprofit Residential Care Homes.)

If the purchaser is not a qualifying hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, or nonprofit residential care home or does not use the property or services purchased exclusively for the purposes for which the institution was established, the purchaser owes use tax on the total purchase price of the property or services.

Statutory Authority: Conn. Gen. Stat. §12-412(5) and (94), and Chapter 368v of the Connecticut General Statutes.

Instructions for the Purchaser: An officer of the qualifying hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, or nonprofit residential care home must issue and sign this certificate to advise the seller of tangible personal property or taxable services that sales and use taxes do not apply to the purchase. Keep a copy of the certificate, the documents attached, and records that substantiate the information entered on this certificate for at least six years from the date this certificate is issued.

The purchaser must attach to this certificate a copy of the license issued by the Department of Public Health under Chapter 368v of the Connecticut General Statutes.

In addition, a nonprofit hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, or nonprofit residential care home, must attach a copy of the:

- Exemption permit issued to the organization by DRS prior to July 1, 2002; or
- Determination letter issued by the IRS that establishes the organization is an exempt organization as described in I.R.C. §501(c)(3) or (4).

Instructions for the Seller: Acceptance of this certificate, when properly completed, relieves the seller from the burden of proving that the sale and storage, use, or other consumption, of the tangible personal property or taxable services are not subject to sales and use taxes. The certificate is valid only if taken in good faith from a qualifying hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, or nonprofit residential care home. For example, the good faith of the seller will be questioned if the seller knows of facts that suggest the purchaser is not a qualifying hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, or nonprofit residential care home.

Keep this certificate, the documents attached, and bills or invoices to the purchaser for at least six years from the date the items or services were purchased. The bills, invoices, or records covering the purchases made under this certificate must be marked "Exempt Under CERT-113" to indicate that the purchases were exempt.

This certificate may be used for a single exempt purchase, in which case the box marked "One Purchase Only" must be checked. This certificate may also be used for a continuing line of exempt purchases, in which event the purchaser must check the box marked "Blanket Certificate." A blanket certificate remains in effect from the date CERT-113 is issued until the date the institution's license with the Department of Public Health expires, unless the purchaser revokes CERT-113 in writing before the date the license with the Department of Public Health expires.

A qualifying hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, or nonprofit residential care home must pay for its exempt purchases by a check drawn on its checking account or by a credit card issued in its name (and not in the name of any of its members or officers). A qualifying hospital, nonprofit nursing home, nonprofit rest home, or nonprofit residential care home may make a purchase of $10 or less using cash from the institution's own funds. However, a blanket CERT-113 may not be used for a cash purchase, and a properly completed CERT-113, with the appropriate documents attached, must be issued to the retailer at the time of each cash purchase.

Notice to Vendors

1. Massachusetts General Laws assume that all gross receipts of a vendor from the sale of tangible personal property and services are from sales subject to tax, unless the contrary is established. The burden of proving that a sale of tangible personal property or service by any vendor is not a retail sale is placed upon the vendor unless he/she accepts from the purchaser a certificate declaring that the property or service is purchased for resale.
2. A resale certificate relieves the vendor from the burden of proof only if it is taken in good faith from a purchaser who is engaged in the business of selling tangible property or services and who holds a valid Massachusetts sales tax registration.
3. The good faith of the vendor will be questioned if he/she has knowledge of facts which give rise to a reasonable inference that the purchaser does not intend to resell the property or services. For example, knowledge that a purchaser of particular merchandise is not engaged in the business of selling the kind of merchandise or service he/she is purchasing under this certificate would constitute grounds to question the good faith of the vendor.
4. The vendor must make sure that the certificate is filled out properly and signed before accepting it.
5. The vendor must retain this certificate as part of his/her permanent tax records.

If you have any questions about the acceptance or use of this certificate, please contact: Massachusetts Department of Revenue, Customer Service Bureau, PO Box 7010, Boston, MA 02204, or call (617) 887-MDOR or toll-free, in-state 1-800-392-6089.

Notice to Purchasers

1. This certificate is to be used when the purchaser intends to resell the tangible personal property or service in the regular course of business. Manufacturers claiming an exempt use of the materials, tools and fuel which will be used in the manufacture, processing or conversion of tangible personal property should use Form ST-12, Exempt Use Certificate. Tax-exempt organizations making purchases for other than resale are to use Form ST-5, Exempt Purchaser Certificate.
2. The purchaser must hold a valid Massachusetts vendor registration. If you need to apply for a registration, go to mass.gov/dor and click on MassTaxConnect to complete an online application for registration.
3. This certificate must be signed by and bear the name and address of the purchaser and his/her Account ID number or Federal Identification number. This certificate must also indicate the type of tangible personal property purchased and resold by the purchaser.
4. If a purchaser who gives a certificate makes any use of the property other than retention, demonstration or display while holding it for sale in the regular course of business, such property will be subject to the Massachusetts sales or use tax, as of the time the property is first used by him/her.
5. If you are engaged in a service activity, and are unsure as to the eligibility of the tangible personal property being purchased for resale, see the regulation on Service Enterprises, 830 CMR 64H.1.1.
6. For further information about the use of resale certificates, see the regulation on Resale and Exempt Use Certificates, 830 CMR 64H.8.1.

Warning: Willful misuse of this certificate may result in criminal tax evasion sanctions of up to one year in prison and $10,000 ($50,000 for corporations) in fines.
